III. Summary of program requiring funding (title; featured artist(s); speaker(s); scheduled date(s):

The UMaine Jazz Ensemble will host guest artist Bryan Davis on its April 25th concert in Minsky Recital Hall. He will also be performing with the group on MPBN on April 26th, after giving a master class for student performers earlier that day. His time at UMaine will include both rehearsals and public performances from April 24-26th.

Bryan Davis is a trumpet player, originally from the UK, now residing in New York City, USA. He received his formal musical training at Leeds College of Music but considers "the road" as his true education. With 20 years of professional experience to his credit, Bryan continues to learn from the thousands of musicians he has performed with around the world. His trumpet teachers include J. Brian Brown, Richard Iles, Dick Hawdon, Brian Lynch and Roger Ingram. In his early career, Bryan Davis had long associations with a number of groups, ranging from the National Youth Jazz Orchestra of Great Britain, to nightclub band Jazz Amiga and salsa group Casa Latina All-Stars. The latter, in particular, afforded him a busy period in the late '90s where he performed with most of the greatest 'Latin' bands in the UK, as well as visiting groups from the USA and South America. These included Jesus Alemany, Cubanismo, Sierra Maestra, Jimmy Bosch, Isaac Delgado, Roberto Pla, Robin Jones and King Salsa, and Salsa Celtica. In late 2009, Bryan Davis emigrated to the USA. Since his arrival in New York City, he has performed with numerous groups in the US including the Artie Shaw Orchestra, the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, Mike Longo's NY State of the Art Jazz Ensemble, Arturo O'Farrill's Afro Latin Jazz Orchestra, Mr Ho's Orchestrotica, Gary Morgan's Panamericana, the New Life Jazz Orchestra, Gloria Gaynor, the Legally Blonde National Tour and Danny Seraphine's CTA, among many others.

During the past few years, Mr Davis has become increasingly involved with music education, not only teaching trumpet lessons, in person and online via Skype, but also leading clinics and workshops around the world; at institutions including NYU and Fullerton College in California, and at festivals including the 5th Encuentro Nacional de Trompeta "Rafael Mendez" in Mexico City.

IV. Budget Proposal Form must be attached.

Funding for current application is contingent upon submission of reports for any previous grant awards, including final budget and attendance figures.

Pam,

The Cultural Affairs committee has decided to fund the Bryan Davis, Scott Brickman, and Lydia Forbes events at their respective requested amounts of $900.00 (Davis), $300.00 (Birckman), and $250.00 (Forbes). I've attached a report form which will need to be completed within 60 days of the conclusion of each event and returned along with an Adjusting Entry form and GL backup of expenses. Due to the close of the fiscal year the Bryan Davis report will be due by 6/1/13. Feel free to let me know if you have any questions.

Summary of Program for which grant funds were awarded, including a brief description, place where the program was held; and date and time:

The UMaine Jazz Ensemble hosted guest artist Bryan Davis on its April 25th concert in Minsky Recital Hall. Mr. Davis also performed with the group on MPBN on April 26th, after giving a master class for student performers earlier that day. His time at UMaine also overlapped with masterclasses with the Mnozil Brass Ensemble, so that he also participated in that residency co-sponsored by the Music Division and the CCA.

How many people attended the event(s)? If possible describe the different audiences that this program served (i.e. UMaine Students, general community, teachers, etc.).

At the Minsky Recital Hall concert, there was a live audience of about 150 people. The masterclass (open to the public) on Friday had an audience of 30 students/faculty/area teachers, and the MPBN Radio show had an expected audience of thousands.

How was the event promoted? Please attach copies of promotional material.

Posters, social media, calendar listings on and off campus, email.

Please describe any modifications to program or budget made after award:

Please attach a final budget, an Adjusting Entry form listing expenses, and GL printouts showing expenses to this form.
